Alan Rodger, Lord Rodger of Earlsferry, wrote on legal history and Roman law for more than forty years. He was a student of David Daube at the University of Oxford, and remained an active and engaged scholar even as he pursued a career as an advocate and in government, eventually serving as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom.

Speakers:

TIZIANA J. CHIUSI (Professor of Civil Law, Roman Law and Comparative Law, University of Saarland)

MICHAEL CRAWFORD FBA (Emeritus Professor, History, University College London)

ROBIN EVANS-JONES (Professor of Jurisprudence, University of Aberdeen)

JOSHUA S. GETZLER (Professor of Law and Legal History, University of Oxford)

KENNETH REID CBE, FBA, FRSE (Professor of Scots Law, University of Edinburgh)

JOHN RICHARDSON FRSE (Emeritus Professor of Classics, University of Edinburgh)

BOUDEWIJN SIRKS (Regius Professor of Civil Law, University of Oxford).

Organisers: Ernest Metzger, Douglas Professor of Civil Law in the University of Glasgow, and David Johnston QC, Axiom Advocates, Edinburgh. Email: rodgermemorial@iuscivile.com
